A note from Peter

I came to Australia from Slovakia. I'm a builder and a dad to Sakura, and I made Mr. Pepo, the light-bulb inventor, with his robot Luna and his dog Sakura.

My mind works differently. I call that a mental ability, not a disability. Forms and systems used to stop me. With the right help I started building books, videos, a shop and a website.

I made this journal so you can find what your mind is good at too. Write a little or a lot. There are no wrong answers.

Peter

How to use this journal

About me

My name:

What my brain is great at:

What makes things hard for me:

What helps me (people, tools, places, routines):

My kind of mind:

ADHD, autism, both, something else, or not sure yet

Date:

My energy today:

◯ low ◯ okay ◯ high

How my senses felt (noise, light, touch, crowds):

Ideas that popped up (park them here):

What I started, and what I finished:

One thing my mind did well today:

One hard moment, and what helped:

Something Mr. Pepo would say about today:

Who or what I'm grateful for:

Tomorrow's one small step:

Weekly look back

What worked for me this week:

What I learned about how my brain works:

Who helped me, and who I helped:

One thing I'd like to try next week:

My story, in my words

For when you want to share your story with family, school, work, or even radio and TV.

What I want people to understand about minds like mine:

A moment I'm proud of:

What helped me most, so it can help someone else:

What I'd change in the system if I could:

Free space

Draw, map your ideas, or write whatever your mind needs.
