A note from Peter

I come from Slovakia, and I live in Australia now. I'm a dad to Sakura, and I made Mr. Pepo, the light-bulb inventor, with his robot Luna and his dog Sakura.

My mind works differently. I call that a mental ability, not a disability. Some days my brain remembers every hard thing and forgets the good ones. Writing the good things down helps them stay.

This gratitude journal is made for minds like ours. No long essays. Just a few small bright moments a day, the people who help, and the things your brain did well. There are no wrong answers.

How to use this journal

- Print the daily page as many times as you like.
- Tiny things count: a warm drink, a quiet room, a good song.
- Hard day? Write just one good thing. That is enough.
- Read old pages on the tough days.
